JAMES BUCLARY

Plaintiff,

v.

RSC RESTYLING SPECIALISTS, INC.
3920 Nebraska Ave.
Levittown, PA 19056

Defendant.

CIVIL ACTION

No. _____

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

CIVIL ACTION COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, by and through his undersigned counsel, hereby avers as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. This action has been initiated by James Buclary (hereinafter referred to as "Plaintiff," unless indicated otherwise) against RSC Restyling Specialist, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as "Defendant" unless indicated otherwise) for violations of the Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA" - 42 USC §§ 12101 et seq.) and the Pennsylvania Human Relations Act ("PHRA").¹ As a direct consequence of Defendant's unlawful actions, Plaintiff seeks damages as set forth herein.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This Court has original subject matter jurisdiction over the instant action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1343(a) (4) because it arises under the laws of the United States and seeks redress for violations of federal laws. There lies supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's state-law claims because they arise out of the same common nucleus of operative facts as Plaintiff's federal claims asserted herein.

3. This Court may properly maintain personal jurisdiction over Defendant because its contacts with this state and this judicial district are sufficient for the exercise of jurisdiction over Defendant to comply with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice, satisfying the standard set forth by the United States Supreme Court in International Shoe Co. v. Washington, 326 U.S. 310 (1945) and its progeny.

4. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b)(1) and (b)(2), venue is properly laid in this district because all of the acts and/or omissions giving rise to the claims set forth herein occurred in this judicial district, and Defendant is deemed to reside where it is subject to personal jurisdiction, rendering Defendant a resident of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

PARTIES

5. The foregoing paragraphs are incorporated herein in their entirety as if set forth in full.

6. Plaintiff is an adult individual, with an address as set forth in the caption.

7. Defendant RSC Restyling Specialists, Inc. ("Defendant") is an automotive service company located at the above-captioned address.

8. At all times relevant herein, Defendant acted by and through its agents, servants and employees, each of whom acted at all times relevant herein in the course and scope of their employment with and for Defendant.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

9. The foregoing paragraphs are incorporated herein in their entirety as if set forth in full.

10. Plaintiff was hired by Defendant in or about September of 2016 as a driver.

11. Defendant engages in providing custom work to auto dealerships through Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

12. Therefore, as part of Plaintiff's job duties, he would be required to drive either a customer's vehicle to and from various auto dealerships or the "chase car," which would supply another driver with a ride back from the dealership after delivering a customer's car or vice versa.

13. While employed with Defendant, Plaintiff was a dedicated and hard-working employee who performed his job well and lacked any disciplinary history.

14. Further, Plaintiff went above and beyond his normal job duties to complete tasks that other employees refused to do.

15. Since in or about 2007, Plaintiff has and continues to suffer from disabilities related to his knee, back and foot, which at times, limits his ability to perform some major life activities, including but not limited to sitting, standing, walking, bending, and performing manual tasks.

16. Despite Plaintiff's aforesaid health conditions and limitations, he was still able to perform the duties of his job well with Defendant; however, Plaintiff did require reasonable accommodations on occasion.

17. For example, as a result of his knee condition, Plaintiff cannot fully bend his left knee, which requires him to sit in the front seat of a vehicle, as he cannot physically sit in the back seat of most vehicles.

18. Therefore, Plaintiff would often times ask to sit in the front seat of a vehicle while working for Defendant, as he could not physically sit in the back seat. In response, Plaintiff's co-workers took issue with this accommodation and his health conditions and would harass him for same.

19. Plaintiff also requested further accommodations for his aforesaid disabilities from Defendant's management while employed with Defendant.

20. For example, during the last full week of Plaintiff's employment with Defendant, Plaintiff asked Driver Supervisor, Chris (last name unknown) if he could drive the chase car for a short period of time due to a flare up related to his aforesaid back condition. Chris agreed to Plaintiff's temporary accommodation request.

21. After Plaintiff's accommodation was granted, Plaintiff's co-workers began to question whether Plaintiff's accommodation of driving the chase car was permanent, to which Plaintiff responded that it was not.

22. On or about February 14, 2017, within three working days after requesting a reasonable accommodation (of driving the chase car for a brief period of time), Plaintiff was informed by Chris and Andy Kaplan (General Manager) that he was being terminated from his employment with Respondent because some of the drivers had complained that he was driving too fast.

23. At no point in time during Plaintiff's employment with Defendant did Defendant's management ever discipline or counsel Plaintiff about his driving.

24. Further, the allegation that Plaintiff was driving too fast, is absurd and inaccurate.

25. Following his termination from Defendant, Plaintiff asked to meet with Craig (last name unknown – Owner) and Joe (last name unknown – Owner) in an attempt to get his job back. At first, Defendant's management resisted a meeting with Plaintiff and the owners; however, after Plaintiff asked again a few days later, he was granted a meeting with Craig, Joe and Chris, which was scheduled for February 21, 2017.

26. During Plaintiff's meeting with Craig, Joe, and Chris on or about February 21, 2017, Plaintiff expressed why he believed his termination was unfair and discriminatory; however, Plaintiff's concerns were ignored by Defendant's management.

27. Plaintiff was thereafter informed by Craig via telephone that his termination would stand.

28. Plaintiff believes and therefore avers that he was terminated from Defendant due to his actual/perceived/record of disabilities and/or in retaliation for requesting reasonable accommodations.

COUNT I

Violations of the Americans with Disabilities Act "ADA"

([1] Actual/Perceived/Record of Disability Discrimination; and [2] Retaliation)

29. The foregoing paragraphs are incorporated herein in their entirety as if set forth in full.

30. Plaintiff has properly exhausted his administrative remedies with respect to his ADA claims by timely filing a Charge of Discrimination with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC") and by filing the instant lawsuit within ninety (90) days of receiving a notice of dismissal and/or right to sue letter from the EEOC.

31. Plaintiff suffered from qualifying health conditions under the ADA (as amended), which (at times) affected his ability to perform some daily life activities (as discussed supra).

32. Plaintiff requested reasonable accommodations during his employment with Defendant, including but not limited to sitting in the front seat of vehicles as much as possible (versus the back seat) and the ability to solely drive the chase care for a brief period of time.

33. Shortly after Plaintiff's last request for an accommodation, he was terminated from his employment with Defendant for completely pretextual reasons.

34. Plaintiff believes and therefore avers that he was terminated from Defendant because of: (1) his known and/or perceived disabilities; (2) his record of impairment; and/or (3) because he requested accommodations, which constitutes unlawful retaliation.

35. These actions as aforesaid constitute violations of the ADA, as amended.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays that this Court enter an Order providing that:

A. Defendant is to compensate Plaintiff, reimburse Plaintiff, and make Plaintiff whole for any and all pay and benefits Plaintiff would have received had it not been for Defendant's illegal actions, including but not limited to back pay, front pay, salary, pay increases, bonuses, insurance, benefits, training, promotions, reinstatement, and seniority.

B. Plaintiff is to be awarded punitive damages, as permitted by applicable law, in an amount believed by the Court or trier of fact to be appropriate to punish Defendant for its willful, deliberate, malicious and outrageous conduct and to deter Defendant or other employers from engaging in such misconduct in the future;

C. Plaintiff is to be accorded other equitable and legal relief as the Court deems just, proper, and appropriate (including but not limited to damages for emotional distress / pain and suffering);

D. Plaintiff is to be awarded the costs and expenses of this action and reasonable attorney's fees as provided by applicable federal and state law; and

E. Plaintiff is to be given a jury trial as demanded in the caption of this Complaint.

Respectfully submitted,

KARPF, KARPFF & CERUTTI, P.C.
